THOROUGHBRED RULES

DIRECTIVE 2013/03

For the purpose of Rule 3 – licensing - it is hereby directed that it be interpreted and applied as follows:

No owner or trainer, either directly or by authorized agent, whose spouse has access to veterinary records by virtue of his/her employment may claim a horse which has been examined by the spouse's employer within one month of the date of proposed claim unless the said owner or trainer has received permission from the MHRC, MHRC Chair or Vice Chair or Executive Director.

The owner or trainer wishing to obtain permission shall apply to the MHRC prior to or forthwith after the commencement of the spouses' employment.

The MHRC may in its sole discretion allow the application with or without conditions or deny the application. The MHRC may at any time review the matter and vary the original decision.

In the event the application is dealt with by the Chair, Vice Chair, or Executive Director it will remain in effect until it is considered by the MHRC as whole.
