Judge-in-Training
Casual
Manitoba Horse Racing Commission

Closing Date: ~~February 13, 2020~~ Extended until position is filled.

Salary Range: Judge-in-Training
$228.59 to $293.30 per race day, based on experience

The Manitoba Horse Racing Commission (MHRC) governs, directs, controls and regulates horse racing and the operation of all horse race tracks in Manitoba offering pari-mutuel wagering. The MHRC strives to ensure that horse racing is carried on in a manner that is fair and safe for all participants and perceived as such by the public.

The MHRC is in the process of being integrated into the Liquor, Gaming and Cannabis Authority of Manitoba (LGCA); as a result, this staffing competition is being led by LGCA staff.

Qualifications:

The successful candidate must have:

- High school diploma and work experience in working directly with the pari-mutuel horse racing industry and/or a regulatory environment. An equivalent combination of education and particularly experience may be considered.
- 1-3 years' experience in the horse racing industry, including interpreting rules, officiating horse races, and observing for compliance.
- Strong inspection and investigative skills, with experience ensuring compliance as well as knowledge of conducting hearings on alleged rule violations, including hearing testimony and evidence on the allegations and determine the appropriate action/penalty.
- Knowledge and experience interpreting and applying legislation, policies and procedures, and supporting regulatory standards and requirements including but not limited to The Horse Racing Commission Act, Regulations, Criminal Code (Canada), and Rules of Standardbred Racing.
- Strong communication skills to communicate effectively with internal and external stakeholders, as well as to prepare reports and recommendations.
- Strong interpersonal skills to build and maintain professional relationships with diverse clients and stakeholders.
- Demonstrated political acumen when dealing with confidential and sensitive information.
- Demonstrated decision-making and analytical skills to support organizational and legal requirements.
- Demonstrated ability to work independently and in a team environment.
- Proficiency with MS Office (Word, Outlook) and specialized databases.

Your cover letter and résumé must clearly indicate how you meet the qualifications.

Duties:

Under the supervision of MHRC staff, the judge-in-training will be responsible for enforcing all rules and regulations pertaining to licensed horse racing in Manitoba during the live racing season. Duties include officiating live races, making decisions regarding possible rule violations, assisting in equine drug testing and conducting investigations. The judge-in-training will regularly interact with internal and external stakeholders.

Additional Information:

- An eligibility list may be created for similar positions and will remain in effect for 12 months.
- Applicants may be required to write a screening/selection test.
- Must be legally entitled to work in Canada.
- Circumstances may arise where the competition may need to be withdrawn.
- A valid Manitoba's driver's licence, access to a vehicle and ability to travel periodically throughout Manitoba are required.
- Working hours will be irregular and involve days, evenings and weekends.
- May be required to meet medical examination requirements upon request.
